

National Park Service
U.S. Department of the Interior

Northeast Region

The American Revolution: New Perspectives on an Enduring Legacy A Summer Institute for School, Museum, and Park Educators

Application Instructions

Please submit the following information in a separate word document and email to: Gloria\_Updyke@nps.gov

Name, Address, Phone-home and work, Email

School/Institution, Grade level(s) taught, years in teaching, subject area(s), position

Please write a one-two page essay to include the following:

1. Describe how this Institute will enhance your instruction and student learning.
2. Describe what you are interested in learning about the American Revolution.
3. What appeals to you about this Institute?
4. How did you hear about this Institute?

EXPERIENCE YOUR AMERICA

The National Park Service cares for special places saved by the American people so that all may experience our heritage.™

Participation in the Institute is limited to 40 school, museum, and National Park Service educators. Application deadline is April 15, 2005.

Applicants agree to the following:

If I am selected to attend the American Revolution Institute I commit to attending all sessions, reviewing material beforehand, participating in three web-based discussions, and submitting a final lesson plan or unit.

For questions or more information contact:

Noelle_Conrad@nps.gov

Or call (718) 354-4517

The American Revolution Institute is a joint partnership between the New-York Historical Society, the American Revolution Center at Valley Forge National Historical Park, and the National Park Service including the Northeast Center for Education Services, Northeast Region Interpretation, and Valley Forge National Historical Park.